

In your county are several elected county officials who serve the county in many different ways. Choose one of those people and list at least three things they do during a normal day. Then, pick one of those things and tell why it is important. Bonus points if you can name the actual person who is in that office.

Each county is different, but here are some possible elected offices in your county: Assessor, Attorney, Auditor, Clerk, Commissioner, Council Member, Executive, Mayor, Recorder, Sheriff, Surveyor, Treasurer. Remember, some may be combined (ie clerk/auditor).

I am choosing a day in the life of the county...

This person does or is responsible for the following:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Here's one of those things and I why I think it is important:
