

Choices

Assessor	Recorder	Auditor	Commissioners	Surveyor	Sheriff
Council Members	Attorney	Clerk	Treasurer	Executive or Mayor

1. Which group of elected officials oversee all services and functions in the county, and are also part of the most common form of county government?
2. Which office determines the value of business and residential property?
3. Which office ensures that county money and assets are handled properly?
4. Which office keeps a library of documents including maps, military discharges, and court judgments?
5. Who makes sure that all property within the county are correctly located, measured, and recorded?
6. Which office's main function is to collect property taxes?
7. Which office oversees law enforcement for the entire county?
8. Only two counties have these officials to oversee daily operations. What are these officials called?
9. Which office oversees all elections, issues marriage licenses, handles passports, and takes notes (minutes) during important meetings?
10. Which office oversees both criminal and civil legal services for the county?
11. Who oversees all services and functions, and is the form of government used by only six counties?

List five services provided by your county.

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Which county do you live in?

Name three other cities or towns in your county:

How many counties are in Utah?